

Produced from a Minnesota hybrid grape. For the purists it serves nicely on its own or when served fruit it mimics a Sangria.

Joy was my mom's middle name and the castle from Heidelberg, Germany serves as the backdrop because my parents lived there when my dad served in the Army.

When you visit us, be sure to try some of this semi-sweet red because every day should have a little Joy in it!

freas farm winery

Frontenac
Pennsylvania Table Wine