

This Port-style wine is a varietal blend of Minnesota and European grapes aged in American and French oak.

Celtic for Strong Father, Athair Láidir, is named after my dad. His Irish roots and time spent serving our country as a Staff Sergeant were two things that he cherished. He taught me many lessons in life and they have melded and morphed over the years as my life experiences have changed. If I had to pick, my one take away would be, "Do something right, or don't do it at all." Sláinte chugat Athair Láidir!
