

Named after a Ancestral Pueblo village near Santa Fe New Mexico, loosely translated it means From Mother Earth. During a hike along that mesa, we were caught in a downpour in the desert. Short in duration, yet mighty in strength, the experience reminded me that everyone once in a while, Mother Nature reminds us who is in charge. In commemoration of that experience we not only named our company after it (Tsanakwi Corp d/b/a, Freas Farm Winery), but also our award-winning Sparkling Wine.
